ADVISORY
No. 135 s, 2026
November 3, 2026

In connection with Division Memorandum No. 508, s. 2026, entitled "Division Festival of Talents," announcing the rescheduling of the activity from November 7 to November 14, 2026, at the same venue, this Office hereby reiterates the following guidelines to ensure maximum participation of all District Offices and the selection of the most qualified contestants to represent the Division in the Regional Festival of Talents:

1. District Offices that are unable to field contestants in categories requiring the participation of learners with disabilities due to the unavailability of qualified participants may still join the competition. However, learners with disabilities shall not be substituted or supplemented by regular learners, as their participation is a specific requirement of the contest category.

2. Contestants shall bring their own gadgets, materials, and other necessary equipment. The host school shall provide tables, chairs, liquefied petroleum gas (LPG), and stoves for Savor d' Flavor (Food Preparation) competition only.

3. The use of corded power tools shall be permitted, provided that contestants bring their own extension cords and electrical outlets necessary for their operation.

For your information, guidance, and strict compliance.
