Wakelet Pilipinas Community Week is a free five-day digital conference where participants will be able to learn more about the Wakelet platform from Community Ambassadors and keynote speakers.

These bite-size webinars will showcase how educators can make the most of Wakelet's curation, sharing, and collaboration functionalities, as well as creating a virtual learning environment. Likewise, the virtual event is an avenue to adapt best practices from inspiring sessions and to build personal and professional development and opportunities throughout the week. Participants will receive digital certificates for active involvement and will have a chance to win exciting prizes. Kindly refer to Annex A for the detailed program of activities.

Through the said activity, participants are expected to:

1. improve collaboration, communication, and teamwork in the classroom;
2. discover new ways to share engaging materials with the learning community;
