Only the official team coach and the coaches identified in the list are required to attend the camp. Chaperones are advised to coordinate within their division to ensure that their student-journalists are under the supervision of other designated coaches.

3. This event aims to provide intensive training to NSPC 2025 qualifiers, as a follow-up to the initial Boot Camp Round 1. Further, the second round aims to further enhance participants' journalistic writing, editing, and collaboration skills through analysis of exemplary works, hands-on practice, and simulated group activities. It will also serve as a venue to review and evaluate the outputs submitted during the online asynchronous training.
4. Arrival and registration for the Boot Camp will be on May 8, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The first night of accommodation will be on May 8, and the first meal to be served will be the PM snack. Registration is free of charge.
5. Participants in individual categories are required to present a training portfolio with a minimum of 15 outputs, while those in group categories must submit at least five outputs/scripts.
6. All student-participants must present their duly signed parental consent forms upon registration. Meanwhile, all attending teachers and campus journalists (CJs) are required to present their approved Travel Authority as part of the registration requirements and for reimbursement purposes.
7. Board and lodging during the training shall be charged against the Regional Journalism Funds, while travel expenses and incidental expenses of participants, TWG, and speakers shall be charged against MOOE/local funds and/or journalism funds, or any available funds, subject to the usual government accounting and auditing procedures.
8. Participants shall be granted with service credits and/or Compensatory Time-Off (CTO) in lieu of the workshop days that will fall on vacation in accordance with DepEd Order No. 53, s. 2023, Updated Guidelines on Grant of Vacation Service Credits to Teachers, and CSC-DBM Joint Circular No.2, s. 2015, Policies and Guidelines on Overtime Services and Overtime Pay for Government Employees, respectively.
9. For more information and/or clarifications, please contact Division Journalism coordinators of this division, Lindo O. Adasa and Marilou B. Monding.
